

CODE OF ETHICS FOR STUDENTS OF THE JAN KOCHANOWSKI UNIVERSITY OF KIELCE

§1

1. The Code of Ethics for Students, hereinafter referred to as the 'Code', sets out the principles of student ethics and good conduct, which all students of the Jan Kochanowski University of Kielce, hereinafter referred to as the 'University', are obliged to follow.
2. The principles of student ethics are derived from general standards of conduct and tradition.

§ 2

1. Students are obliged to comply with generally applicable laws and the University's internal regulations, in particular the study regulations.
2. Students are obliged to act in accordance with the oath they have taken, the content of which is governed by the University Statute. In particular:
  - 1) to constantly strive to acquire knowledge and develop their own personality,
  - 2) to respect academic laws and customs,
  - 3) to uphold the dignity and honour of students.
3. Students are obliged to uphold the dignity of students both through their own conduct and by responding to breaches of ethical principles by other students.

§ 3

1. Students are required to respect the University authorities, academic teachers, and all members of staff.
2. Students should treat the symbols of the University with respect: the coat of arms and the flag.

§ 4

Students should fulfil their obligations honestly and conscientiously, in particular by:

- 1) deepening their academic knowledge,
- 2) attend classes, obtain credits, and pass exams,
- 3) fulfil their obligations to the University within the specified deadlines.

§ 5

Any disputes between students arising from academic life should be resolved amicably.

§6

1. A student is subject to disciplinary action by the Rector of the University or the Student Disciplinary Committee.
2. Disciplinary proceedings and the schedule of penalties are set out in separate regulations.

§7

1. This Code forms an integral part of the University Self-Government Regulations.
2. The Student Self-Government of the Jan Kochanowski University is responsible for disseminating this Code amongst the student community.
